Death of au Old Citizen.

Mr. Brent Spence, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Davidson county died yesterday morning at the residence of Gen. Dunlap, in this city. For many years of his life, an active and enterprising business man, Mr. Spence was a useful citizen in the community where he has so long lived, and the approuncement of his death will be read with regret by many who have known him intimately in other and better days. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock, this morning, at the residence of Gen J. T. Dunlap, No 17 McLemore street.

Newcomb's Minstrels.

The far-famed Newcomb Ministrels after an unparalled success of eighteen consecutive months at their Opera House, Cincinnati, have started out on a tour through the country, and will visit Nashville on next Monday night, appearing for five nights at Masonic Hall. This company is well-known to our citizens as one of the very best in the country, and during their stay here, we predict for them crowded houses.

Interesting Ceremony at the Cathedral

-The Angels Charm the People. On Sunday evening, one of these very interesting ceremonics peculiar to the Catholic Church, took place in the Cathedral, and was witnessed by a large concourse of people, who appeared perfectly a tobacco market, and we believe now that street, discharged. charmed by what they saw, and edified by what they heard. In order to avoid an nconvenient crowd, the affair was not made public, yet notwithstanding this. Summer and Cedar streets, in the immediate vicinity of the church, was crowded with anxious spectators, and at three o'clock the church was crowded to excess. there is no reason why there should not be Two years ago the first of the present month, a few Sisters of Mercy awoke for the first time in Nashville, in the building on the corner of Summer and Cedar streets, opposite the Cathedral, leased from Mr. Kirkman for their special use. Soon thereafter these good Sisters opened a school for girls, and when the new school building on Vine street was completed, they also took charge of that, and soon found it well filled with girls and boys under twelve years old.

Will an effort again be were obliged to add to their numbers, besides taking in several novices, and now they may be said to be prepared for any emergency; or, rather, they will be, when they take possession of the magnificient abode recently purchased for them on Cedar street, opposite the Capitol.

After being here about one year, they organized two societies among the children belonging to their schools-one for the older girls, or young ladies, as it is the fashion now to call them, styled " The children of Mary;" and one for the younger children, called The Angel Guardian Society. Both these societies prospered, and accomplished much good among the members. At first a probation of six months was required before an aspirant could become a full member of the Children of Mary, but now three years membership with "the Angels" is required, and then them. It is proper for us to say that either they can be admitted a child of Mary by description of these checks are taken in election among the members of the latter payment of taxes. society. Vespers commenced about three o'clock, nd after the singing of the Magnificent the choir, and receiving the Bishop's blessing, the children sang that beautiful hymn, M. McCormack, T. McKinley and J. W. "Hail! thou purest of immortals! Hail! thou who in bliss doth now shine!

thou who ope'st Heaven's portats O make us all thine. Mary, Mary, make us all thine." The children of Mary then went up to the altar railing to receive their badges, a sash of white silk, with gold star on the shoulder and the letters A. V. M. beautifully worked in gold on the breast. The Bishop and the Rev. P. F. Coyle presented the badges. There are now about two hundred members of this eanity. The little angels then proceeded to the altar railing to receive their badges, consisting of a guardian angel medal attached raigned before Justice Wilkinson yesterto a purple ribbon. Previous to receiving day. There was no person appeared to them, one of the agels, Theresa McKeon, supported on the right and left by Annie Dolin and Alice Quigley, each bearing a lighted taper, advanced to the altar step, and kneeling, read the act of consecration in a clear and distinct voice and with perfect accent and pronunciation. All the children having resumed their sexts, then sang-"Oh mother! I could weep for mirth.

Joy fills my heart so fast;
My soul to-day is heaven on earth;
O, could the transport last.

This was followed by an address from the Bishop, which was one of the most outhing and edifying we have over heard. So simple that the youngest child could appreciate it and the hardest heart feel its force.
